

The image features a central circular frame with a black outline. Inside the frame, the text "Vagues à part" is written in a black, cursive script. Below it, the words "Femmes & enfants" and "Prêt à porter" are written in a clean, black, sans-serif font. The background within the frame is a light cream color. Surrounding the frame are various botanical illustrations: a cheetah is depicted at the bottom left, looking towards the right. Tropical plants, including large green monstera leaves with characteristic holes, smaller green leaves, and a branch with yellow flowers, are scattered around the frame. The overall aesthetic is natural and organic.
